TARTAR TEEN TALK

by Frances Adams

The Christmas season will make its official bow at Torrance High School Dec. 15 at 8:30 a.m. when students and faculty gather for the Christmas aud call.

Under the direction of the Girls' League, assisted by Mrs. Reba Grosch, advisor, the assembly will include Christmas readings and songs by faculty and students, pantomime recordings, selections by the Tartar Choir, Girls' Glee Club, and the traditional arrival of Mr. Garth Belknap as Santa Claus, replete in costume, and bearing a sack of candy for the entire study body.

THE THS Latin Club members are preparing to present a sketch from George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," which will be given in early January. Larry Sepulveda has been cast as Caesar and Ann Robinson will play the part of Cleopatra.

GROUND BREAKING ceremonies starting the construction of the administration building at Torrance High School are scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday. The construction of the administration building is the first step in carrying out a master plan to double the capacity of THE through improvements to be made on long range plans.
